

Young Consultant of the Year

Timothy Price, PwC

Tim is a Manager in PwC's Operations practice, specialising in leading operational performance improvement programmes. He prides himself on delivering tangible and sustained results, working in a wide range of environments from the front office of a wealth management firm to the wards and operating theatres of NHS hospitals.

Tim's work has delivered multi-million pound financial benefits, transformed the working environment of the client teams he has worked with and been recognised at the highest level of PwC and client leadership.