

MCA Awards 2018 Finalist

Young Consultant of the Year

Sandra Perez, Inner Circle Consulting

Sandra Perez began her career as a designer and urban practitioner and moved into management consultancy when she joined Inner Circle four years ago. Her approach to consultancy work is shaped by her past experiences as a design professional, using her expertise to bring together stakeholders across different disciplines and interests to deliver a common vision and achieve positive change in organisations and the built environment. Her achievements have included supporting Barnet Council's multi-million pound regeneration programme, the transformation of Barnet's Town Centres programme and leading the change and building programme for Harrow Council's new civic office.
