

INDIVIDUAL ENTRIES

Guidance

- The MCA Awards can only be entered by full MCA members (membership must still be valid up to and including (Tuesday 15th October 2024)).
- The strict deadline for entries to be submitted is Friday 15th March 2024. Entries submitted after this date will not be marked. No extensions will be permitted.
- Firms may enter a maximum of four consultants in each category. Each candidate can only be entered once. A maximum of two consultants from each firm can reach the interview stage with the highest scoring individuals selected.
- Individuals entering need to be employed by UK based Consultancy firm and based in the UK.
- No project or individual entry can be submitted into more than one category.
- There will be no self-nominations. All declaration forms must be signed by a Senior manager/Partner and submitted by the awards coordinator for each firm.
- All entries must include detail on whether the individual has been nominated or won any other MCA award previously.
- Finalist nominees will be asked to attend a 25-minute interview with a panel of independent judges. The MCA judging panel is detailed on the MCA website.
- Should you be shortlisted you will be informed on Wednesday 8th May 2024.
- Should the individual leave the consulting industry before Tuesday 15th October 2024 the individual entry will be withdrawn by the MCA, with the exception of the Lifetime Achievement Award, for this category individuals must have been employed in the industry in the year prior and meet all standard criteria detailed in the category.
- Should the individual leave the MCA member firm the firm must contact the MCA asap.
- The MCA judging panel reserves the right to withdraw any entry or finalist from the MCA Awards permission for reputational reasons.

Submission

For each project entry you must submit the following:

Written Entry Structure

1. Summary (no more than 250 words)

This should explain why the consultant should win the award and provide a broad overview of skills and experience.

2. Personal Statement

The personal statement should be written by the nominated consultant in the first person. It should highlight why the consultant feels they should win the award. It should refer to specific skills applied on up to four projects. The projects referenced can have taken place at any time within the last five years but must include recent projects. Judges will be looking for evidence of the below (see judging criteria for further details). Please note that whilst reference should be made to all of these areas, the consultant should ensure that they focus on their particular strengths in these areas:

- Client Focus
- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Communication
- Project Management
- Critical Thinking

3. Specialist knowledge and expertise (No more than 15 bullets)

Please list evidence of your knowledge in your specialist area as demonstrated over the last two years, for example through research, published material and development of tools/methodologies.
