Written Entry Structure

You are free to structure your written entry as you wish as long as you remain within the word count.

The entry should cover, but not be limited to:

- Client focus – delivering value to clients; building client relationships; Providing client testimonials is key.
- Delivery excellence – creating and delivering tailored solutions to clients; how success is measured; your USP.
- Operational excellence – sound operational processes; who's on your books – past and present clients; recent levels of growth and your company's mission; commitment to high standards of integrity and professionalism
- Commitment to your people – what it feels like to be a consultant at your company and company culture. The importance of training & development and diversity & inclusion will be a key area of focus for the judges.

Please also illustrate these (where relevant) with information about the culture of your firm, evidence of your commitment to innovation and research, and examples of any thought leadership.

Client Testimonials

It is necessary when entering this category for you to have the explicit endorsement of clients. Clients should be encouraged to state their views on the value delivered, elements of delivery or the client/consultant relationship. Clients should be able to be contacted to verify their endorsements.
