

Best Use of Thought Leadership Entries

Guidance

- The MCA Awards can only be entered by full MCA members (membership must still be valid up to and including Thursday 23 April 2020).
- The strict deadline for entries to be submitted is 27th September 2019.
- All projects should have been completed in the 24 months before the entry deadline.
- A project can only be submitted for one category.
- The judges reserve the right to re-allocate an entry to a different category if appropriate.
- Each Submission must contain a declaration signed by a senior representative at the MCA member firm stating that all the information provided is true and factually accurate. Please ensure the submission entered is supported by your client as they will be expected to attend an interview should you reach the finalist stages.
- Should you be shortlisted you will be informed on Monday 6th January 2020.
- All finalist entries will be asked to attend a 20-25-minute face to face interview with a panel of independent judges. The new MCA judging panel is detailed on the MCA website.
- One consultant representative, who worked directly on the project, must be available for interview in person at the MCA offices at a date set by the MCA. The judging days for 2020 are between Monday 27th January and Friday 14th February 2020. A client representative should be available for interview on these dates either in person or via telephone/video call and the contribution of clients is vitally important to the success .

Written Entry Criteria

- Each entry must constitute a 2,000 word case study and follow the structure outlined below. Failure to do so may result in disqualification. Word counts include all headings and footnotes, but not words in diagrams and charts, or the cover sheet. Pages should be numbered.
- Entries must be submitted as a Word document. This must include a cover sheet stating the name of the consulting firm, the name of the client, and the category being entered; and may include the consulting firm and client logos. This cover sheet will not be included in the word count.
- Up to three technical diagrams, charts or photos/images, that help to tell the story, may be included. Please note the imagery must be able to be viewed clearly on either MS word or pdf document.
- No additional documentation or other supporting material will be accepted.
- The judges will be looking for an engaging and informative account of the project and what it achieved.

Written Entry Structure

1. Executive Summary (no more than 250 words)

This should provide a summary of the thought leadership initiative and what it achieved. It should explain how this project supported your wider objectives as a firm and identify partners (if any) and your key audiences.

2. Approach

This should cover:

- How you identified the issue or topic
- The approach you adopted and why you felt this would be most effective
- The people and other resources that were mobilised and the methodology that you used
- How the thought leadership was communicated
- Difficulties that you encountered anyhow you overcame them

3. Impact

This should cover:

- The impact of this project or approach on your consulting firm and its commercial development
- The impact on those in the firm who were engaged in the project or have made use of it
- Evidence of its impact with existing clients and/or potential clients
- The impact on your firm's ability to have a voice in key debates and to attract external interest
- Media and press coverage

4. Client Testimonials

It is not necessary when entering this category for you to have the explicit endorsement of clients. However, entries which can demonstrate awareness and positive reactions from clients – or other authoritative 3rd parties - will be at an advantage.
